

ADVANCE COMMUNICATION

Northwestern Institute on Complex Systems

Complexity Conference: "Agents and Networks"

Featuring:

Lada Adamic¹, Katy Börner², Carter Butts³, Joshua M. Epstein⁴,
Nigel Gilbert⁵, James Moody⁶, Garry Robins⁷, Paul Torrens⁸

¹University of Michigan; ²Indiana University; ³University of California, Irvine

⁴The Brookings Institution; ⁵University of Surrey; ⁶Duke University;

⁷The University of Melbourne; ⁸Arizona State University

Abstract. The Northwestern Institute on Complex Systems (NICO) cordially invites you to its Complexity Conference. The goal of this conference is to present the most exciting complex systems research taking place in the social, behavioral, biological, and physical arenas to the Northwestern and wider academic communities. Conference themes this year are agents and network.

Seating is limited and registration is required.

Location. Northwestern University - Evanston, IL.

Fees. NU Faculty, Staff, Students : Free

Non-NU Students/Postdocs: $50 Before Aug. 1 $100 After Aug. 1

Other Visitors: $100 Before Aug. 1 $200 After Aug. 1

Student Poster Session. The NICO Complexity Conference will have a session of contributed posters that can be submitted together with the registration. All submissions will be reviewed by a selection committee before acceptance. The nine best abstracts will be chosen: six will be awarded $100; the top three submissions will be invited to present their work orally and will receive $300. Abstract should be no longer than 2 pages. Submission will be processed through the registration page. Deadline for submission is June 30.

Visit www.northwestern.edu/nico/complexity-conference for more details.